

Reflect on your own experiences with children, families, and colleagues. If you are an supervisor, administrator, or adult educator, how might you use these questions and activities to help other adults reflect on their experiences?

Seek Multiple Perspectives

As you encounter situations which challenge you to consider your professional ethics, it's helpful to explore the perspectives of everyone involved.

Try This!

Take the perspectives of the instructor, Suzette, and a fellow student in the "Getting Back on Your Feet" scenario in Ethical Dilemmas.

How might each of them view this situation?

What might each of them think and feel?
