

YOU'RE INVITED

CPIN English Language Development CPIN Professional Learning Institute

Join us for a powerful two-day institute to learn the latest research from Dr. Linda Espinoza on English language development and become certified to in the language and culturally responsive modules such as the Best Practices for Planning Curriculum: Family Partnerships and the Preschool English Learners (PEL) Guide.

Research speaker, Dr. Linda Espinoza, will share new English language development research, including a newly released national report, and demonstrate how it aligns directly to the preschool learning foundations.

Participants may select the Family Partnership and Culture track or the PEL Guide track to become certified in either module. Participants will have the opportunity to ask Dr. Espinoza questions and discuss new information with their colleagues.

IN ADDITION, PARTICIPANTS WILL...

- Discover and apply adult learning competencies to existing English language development CPIN modules
- Explore relationship-based strategies for extended learning beyond the English language development training modules through technical assistance
