

Handout 8C

Get 'Em Together Answer Sheet

The English Language Development Foundations

Each of the English Language Development foundations is written on separate strips inside the envelope at your table. With a partner, use the boxes below to sort the foundations into the correct strands.

Listening and Speaking:

- Understanding Words
- Using Words
- Using Grammatical Features
- Using Complex Sentence Structures
- Communicating Needs
- Understanding Requests and Directions
- Asking Questions
- Constructing Narratives
- Sharing Explanations and Opinions
- Participating in Conversations

Foundational Literacy Skills

- Recognizing and Segmenting Sounds
- Recognizing and Blending Sounds
- Participating in Rhyming and Wordplay
- Recognizing and Identifying Letters
- Learning Letter–Sound Correspondence
- Understanding the Concept of Print
- Understanding Print Conventions

Reading

- Demonstrating Interest in Literacy Activities
- Participating in Read-Aloud Activities
- Understanding Stories
- Understanding Informational Text

Writing

- Writing to Represent Words or Ideas
- Writing Own Name