

Meet David

David is 60 months old. He has physical disabilities. He has muscle weakness but is able to use his hands to grasp things. He loves the computer. David enjoys taking part in classroom conversations. Nyak is a service dog for his classroom.

- Review the notes at the bottom of the Language and Literacy Foundations substrand pages which provide information for children with disabilities.
- Brainstorm with your group and record your ideas for adaptations and accommodations on the chart provided.

Meet Bianca

Bianca is 54 months old. She has visual impairments and cognitive delays with short term memory and auditory processing challenges. She is learning to use a cane and a Braille writer. She loves to relate her families experiences.

- Review the notes at the bottom of the Language and Literacy Foundations substrand pages which provide information for children with disabilities.
- Brainstorm with your group and record your ideas for adaptations and accommodations on the chart provided.

Meet Jacob

Jacob is 38 months old. He has a hearing impairment. He uses some sign language and verbal language to communicate. He loves to be physically active. Jacob follows teacher directions.

- Review the notes at the bottom of the Language and Literacy Foundations substrand pages which provide information for children with disabilities.
- Brainstorm with your group and record your ideas for adaptations and accommodations on the chart provided.

Meet Teresa

Teresa is 46 months old. She has visual impairments. She is an English Language learner. She experiences separation anxiety from her family. She loves talking to her preschool friends.

- Review the notes at the bottom of the Language and Literacy Foundations substrand pages which provide information for children with disabilities.
- Brainstorm with your group and record your ideas for adaptations and accommodations on the chart provided.

Meet Sarah

Sarah is 48 months old. She has language and fine motor delays. She loves adult social interaction.

- Review the notes at the bottom of the Language and Literacy Foundations substrand pages which provide information for children with disabilities.
- Brainstorm with your group and record your ideas for adaptations and accommodations on the chart provided.

Meet Noah

Noah is 42 months old. He wears a patch to strengthen his weak eye. He has language and fine motor delays. His speech and language is at a 36 month old level.

- Review the notes at the bottom of the Language and Literacy Foundations substrand pages which provide information for children with disabilities.
- Brainstorm with your group and record your ideas for adaptations and accommodations on the chart provided.