

Home School Connection

Presentation by
Cathy Mikitka & Jan Davis

February 9th, 2005

Home-School Connection

“Effective home-school communication brings a greater consistency between the two most important environments for the child that undoubtedly will provide the child with more opportunities for learning and growth.”

Turnbull/Turnbull 1996

Family Perspectives on Literacy

1. Think about a personal family literacy goal.
2. How would you want your child's preschool program to respond to this goal?
3. Would anything change if your child has a disability?