

Meghan turning the music book pages for a friend

Meghan reading a book at bedtime

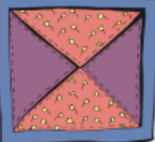

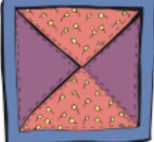

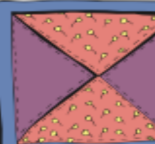

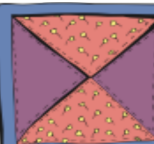

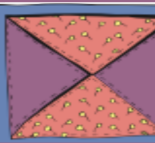

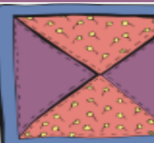

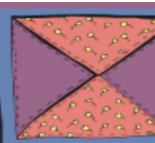

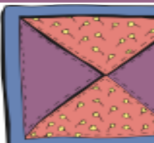

Home Literacy Activities

A child's daily life is full of literacy activities and events, for example:

- Bedtime stories
- Calendar of activities
- TV guide
- Cards
- Menus
- Storytelling
- Highlight print at home (cartons, labels, newspapers, magazines, etc.)
- Grocery lists
- Singing songs in the car
- Exploring books on own
- Reading traffic signals, billboards, etc.
- Books on tape
- Cultural readings
- Cooking activities
- Ask open ended questions

Quilt Information Woven by Members of Meghan's Preschool Team

Occupational Therapist		Special Education Teacher		Developmental Pediatrician
	Private & School Speech Therapist		Instructional Assistants (2 rotate within the program)
Childcare Team		Orthopedic Surgeon		Augmentative Communication Specialist
	Orthotics Team	Neurologist	Wheelchair Team
Music Therapist		Physical Therapist		Optometrist
	Horseback Riding Instructor		Dental Team
School Principal		Preschool Teacher		Swim Teacher

“Let us put our heads together

And

See what life we will make for our children.”

Tatanka
Iotanks
(Sitting Bull, Lakota)