

Photo Books

Many teachers take photos of their children working throughout the day. Here is a way to turn those photos into a Language Activity.

- Use tag-board/construction paper, file folders, or photo album pages.
- Laminate for sturdiness.
- Send home in legal size envelope with class list on front used for check-off.
- The construction/tag-board and photo album pages work well with a cerlox binding.

If the pages are too large for a manila envelope they can be sent home in plastic grocery bag with the class list taped to the front.
